- The cardholder has outstanding card debts towards the Bank.

XIV. Card security rules

- While getting the Card, the cardholder must sign in the field of signature on the opposite side of the card. In case of absence of a signature, or its discrepancy the card service will be declined. It may cause additional expenses as well as possibility of fraud transactions.
- The card should be kept in a safe place, away from other people, humidity, high and low temperature and strong magnetic field. Mechanical damages or excessive bending should be avoided.
- The card must be kept inaccessible to third parties, not left to third parties for payment or handed over to third parties.

- It is forbidden to write the PIN code on the card or give the PIN code to third parties, including the Bank's employees. Remember that the cardholder is the only person who knows the PIN and no one else, including Bank's employees, knows it.
- After memorizing PIN code, it is advised to immediately destroy the envelop on which the PIN code is indicated. One must enter the PIN code for the latter not to be visible to third parties .Never keep card and PIN code together.
- While making transaction and entering the wrong PIN code for three (3 ) times successively, the card will be blocked. The card will be valid after being unblocked by the Bank. In particular,the card will be confiscated by ATM or service department employee
- In case of card loss the cardholder should immediately connect to the appropriate service of the Bank, calling (+37410530761 or +37496012816). The verbal announcement should be confirmed in written form by the cardholder, as soon as possible. In the application the cardholder should indicate in details the circumstances, time, and the place of card loss or theft, personal details for contacting the cardholder, as well as information on illegal usage of the card, if any.
- The police of the country, where the theft has occurred, should be informed about the case. It is necessary to provide the Bank with the copy of that application (protocol).
- Cardholder must keep all the receipts from transactions (including those from ATMs) in order to compare with monthly account statement. In case of any mismatches or mistakes, cardholder should immediately notify the bank. Should cardholder fail to apply to the bank by the expiry of the date provided for protests, Bank will not satisfy cardholder's request.
- The customer should be careful not to forget to withdraw the money and the card from the ATM, if the card is not taken, a signal may sound after which the card may be absorbed by the ATM.
- In case of confiscation of the card, the customer should apply to the Bank to receive it. The bank provides the payment card to the customer within 10 working days.
- The customer should be careful about ATM surroundings, keyboards, card readers and their accessories, cables, stickers and other such suspicious devices if they refuse to make transactions and inform the Bank immediately.
- Card purchases are recommended from known and trusted retail outlets, card details (card number, expiration date, etc.) should not be sent for purchases. by mail to third parties.
- At the points of sale, the Customer should present the card only to the cashier and only when he is really going to make a purchase. During the transaction, the customer should not leave the card out of sight and should not allow the cashier or other employee to remove the card from the service area.
- While making transactions via POS terminals in trade and service outlets you should be provided with two receipts, and by the cashier's request one of these receipt must be signed by the cardholder. In some outlets transactions are made via manual printers and the necessary information is written down by a cashier. In this case the document should be made in 3 copies. Before signing the document, be sure that the amount of money from the purchase, received service or the value of cash, coincides with the amount indicated on the cheque. Never sign the document, if the amount of money is not pointed on it.
- Cardholder must get his/her copy of the receipt and keep it, till the termination of the date set for the disputes of the particular transaction.
- Be sure that the sending of information about the card is encrypted. Check, whether the address of the website(URL) of the particular outlet starts with https:// index. At the same time, at the ridge of the browser should appear the image in visage of closed lock.

- Be aware of a message received by E-mail address, which contains attached files or unknown website addresses. It can endanger the revelation of important and secret information by the help of computer virus or other infected software.
- Install the latest versions of anti-virus and anti-hacking programs in your computer and update their databases on time. It is also necessary to update other programs of your computer periodically.
- Never answer to the questions through e-mail, which contain information on cardholder personal details. If you are required to inform your bank code (don't confuse it with PIN code), passport number or other similar information by phone or by other means of communication, don't inform anything, unless you are sure in legality of the request.
- Be aware of false web site addresses bearing close resemblance to the web site or the e-mail address of a corporate entity, which will likely mislead you.
- Do not close the browser window only. To exit the web site follow the appropriate instructions, otherwise someone else may have access to that site.
- Avoid making financial transactions in joint outlets, which offer services by internet (Internet-cafe, etc). They may have special software which can register cardholder's actions and reveal all the details typed through the keyboard of the computer.
- MasterCard® SecureCode and Verified by Visa® (VbV) systems are available in Internet outlets to enhance the security of card transactions. These systems offer the modern level of security for the transactions made by MasterCard and Visa cards, based on sending SMS messages to cardholder with a code for a single use. Every time cardholder make transaction in trade outlets, using the aforementioned systems, he/she will receive a SMS message with a code for one use only, which should be immediately entered in the appropriate place, otherwise the transactions will be declined. More over, cardholder must not provide third parties with the code, and in case of the absence of mobile phone number or its change, cardholder should apply to the bank personally. In exceptional cases, if the bank permits, cardholder can notify the Bank by other means of communication based on the written application.
- Access to unknown persons should not be allowed while using an ATM located in a closed area. Card-reader devices that allow ATM access in the area should not require a PIN. If you accidentally enter the PIN on the mentioned device, you should immediately block the card and apply to the Bank.
- The cardholder should demand that in his presence immediately destroy the copy of the seller of the wrongly worded or rejected transaction document, and take the client's copy with him. This will allow for faster refund of the client's rejected transaction and in case of fraud by the seller to appeal the transaction as soon as possible.
- In case of return of the product paid for by card, the relevant point of sale should be requested and maintained by the point of sale containing the data of the canceled transaction (card number, date of preoperation, certification code, refund).

XV. Card account closing terms and conditions

- The account is closed at any time by the customer's request.
- The account may be closed by the Bank in the following cases:
